Committee.

2) That a detailed report be prepared on the three year hackney carriage review for a future Committee meeting.

3) That consultation take place with the Licensing Liaison Panel regarding hackney carriage review and proposals for fees should the scoring be carried out.

That a Hackney Carriage/Private Hire Drivers Licence be granted.

1) That whilst the Licensing and Safety Committee took a serious view of the fact that the conviction related to an offence involving violence, the Committee also took into account the fact that he had been a Hackney Carriage driver for over 20 years and had previously had an exemplary record and considered it to be an isolated incident.

2) That he be notified that his future conduct must be exemplary and should there be any further concern or complaints, he be brought back to a meeting of the Committee.
