12.EF.14 WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS

The Chair welcomed everyone to the meeting and asked those on the top table to introduce themselves. Attendees were reminded to introduce themselves, state the organisation they represent, if applicable, and to use the microphone when addressing the meeting.

12.EF.15 APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE

Apologies for absence were submitted on behalf of Estelle Brown (Chorley Pensioners Association), Councillor David Dickinson (Vice-Chair), Judy Daniels (Disability Forum), Diane Gradwell (Chorley, South Ribble & District Citizens Advice Bureau), Finlay Hodge (Community Futures), Albert and Rita

Jeffrey (Deaf Forum), Ginny Jones (Chorley Pensioners Association) and Terry Reynolds (Deaf Forum).

12.EF.16 MINUTES

The minutes of the meetings held on 5 July 2011 and 5 October 2011 were confirmed as a correct record for signature by the Chair.

12.EF.17 ACTIVE WOMEN PROJECT

Lee Boyer (Sport, Play & Physical Activity Manager) and Jessica Walsh (Active Women Co-ordinator) for Chorley Council gave a short presentation which is appended to these minutes. The presentation welcomed comments and ideas / links on how the Active Women project could develop further.

Maureen Kay suggested that officer visit schools, for example, where deaf children attended. Maureen would pass on information about specific schools after the meeting. Lee explained that staff were experienced in dealing with people with disabilities.

John Miller invited the officers to attend the meetings of POUT (the LGBT youth group). Suzie Jones suggested Helen Jenkins as a useful contact.

In response to a query Lee clarified that young women from all areas of the Borough could access the project, although due to the focussed nature of the project there would not be services offered in every village within the Borough. The project had received funding of £20,000 over 2 years.

Lee Boyer can be contacted on 01257 515816 or email lee.boyer@chorley.gov.uk. Jessica Walsh can be contacted on 01257 515262 or email jessica.walsh@chorley.gov.uk

12.EF.18 HANDYMAN SERVICE

Kath Knowles (Housing Manager (Strategy)) for Chorley Council gave a short presentation which is appended to these minutes.

The presentation encouraged the Equality Forum to give their suggestions as to how to reach the target audience (ie those who are over 60 or disabled, living in owner-occupied or privately rented accommodation).

Maureen Kay suggested that a presentation be given to the Deaf Club (title to be clarified). Suzie Jones raised the issue of deaf people communicating with the service by alternative means than the telephone. Maureen advised that texting was not an ideal solution, Deaf Way was a potential alternative. Chorley Council committed to find an alternative method of communication and confirm the details to attendees as soon as possible.

Kath Knowles can be contacted on 01257 515320 or email kath.knowles@chorley.gov.uk

12.EF.19 NEW TASK AND FINISH REVIEW

Sarah James (Partnerships Manager) for Chorley Council gave a short presentation which is appended to these minutes. The topic for the review would be social isolation. The presentation requested input into whether the scope covered everything within the topic and if there was anything additional the review should cover. The review would report back to the meeting of the Forum in July.

Several people had already volunteered to join the group, including Kate Burges from Adult Social Care (LCC) and Geraldine Moore (Age UK). (John Miller (LGBT community) and Suzie Jones (Disability Forum Coordinator) volunteered at the close of the meeting). If anyone else wished to volunteer was asked to contact Sarah by 10 February.

Sarah James can be contacted on 01257 515348 or email sarah.james@chorley.gov.uk

12.EF.20 OPEN FORUM TO DISCUSS ANY ISSUES FOR EACH EQUALITY STRAND

(a) Age

Matthew Hansford advised that there would be Youth Council elections on 29 February from 6.30pm at Chorley Youth and Community Centre, Lord Street, Chorley, PR6 0RF if any Councillors wished to attend. The details would be forwarded to all Councillors. The contact officer was Emma Johnson from the Young Peoples Service at Lancashire County Council. Her email was emma.johnson2@lancashire.gov.uk and telephone no 07584581378.

(b) Disability

Councillor Alison Hansford raised the issue of the electronic signs at Chorley Bus Station having been switched off. This caused problems for people who were partially sighted as the timetable information was print in a font size below 14. Gary Hall reported that the Council's Overview and Scrutiny Committee had written to Lancashire County Council on this topic and a response had been received. This responses are available as a link from this agenda item.

Suzie Jones advised that Eileen Bee had now retired as the Disability Forum Coordinator and introduced herself as the new Coordinator. The next meeting of the Forum would be held on 2 February at the Arts Partnership, Chorley Community Centre, Railway Street, Chorley at 3pm. Suzie distributed some posters, flyers and surveys for members of the Forum to consider and complete. A copy of these would be circulated with the minutes.

Several queries had been raised by Judy Daniels by email as she was not able to attend the meeting. These would be investigated and a response sent to Judy.

1. Taxis parking over the dropped kerbs at the top of High St. on the North side.
2. In Rivington, near the arboretum and the entrance to Rivington Hall, cars on the bridleway where no motorised vehicles are allowed (this was yesterday 14th Jan.)
3. Motorbikes parking on the hashed area of disabled bays, at both barns in Rivington and blocking cars in.
4. Cyclists on pavements and in pedestrian areas in the town centre riding very close to guide dogs and their owners.
5. There was a lot of broken glass on the pavements in the Devonshire Road area left over Christmas and New Year. This is very hazardous for Guide Dogs and their owners.

Maureen Kay reported that a presentation had been delivered to the Deaf Club about upcoming changes to the Disability Living Allowance. Conflicting information had been given to a meeting in Blackpool and clarification on this was requested from Lancashire County Council. Some frequently asked questions from the Department of Work and Pensions are available as a link from this agenda item.
