

Council Report for Armed Forces Covenant - September 2022

Appendix A - Defence Employer Recognition Scheme (ERS) Criteria

1. The Armed Forces Covenant has associated with it, The Defence Employer Recognition Scheme (ERS), which encourages employers to support defence and inspire others to do the same. The scheme encompasses bronze, silver and gold awards for employer organisations that pledge, demonstrate or advocate support to defence and the armed forces community, and align their values with the Armed Forces Covenant.
2. The ERS is designed primarily to recognise private sector support although public sector organisations such as the emergency services, local authorities, NHS trusts and executive agencies are also eligible to be recognised. The accreditations below, demonstrate real commitment to the Armed Forces Covenant process and are held in high esteem nationally.

Bronze Award

- Are self-nominated employers who pledge to support the armed forces, including existing or prospective employees who are members of the community
- Must have signed the Armed Forces Covenant
- Promote being armed forces friendly and are open to employing reservists, armed forces veterans (including the injured and sick, cadet instructors and military spouses / partners
- Receive an electronic certificate and logos to display on their web-site stationary other collateral

Silver Award

- Must have signed the Armed Forces Covenant
- The employer must have already stated their intent to be supportive by using the ERS (Defence Employer Recognition Scheme) website to register at the Bronze Level
- The employer must proactively demonstrate that service personnel / armed forces community are not unfairly disadvantaged as part of their recruiting and selection processes
- Employers must employ at least one individual from the armed forces community category that the nomination emphasises. For example, an employer nominated the support to the Reserves must employ at least one Reservist
- The employer must actively ensure that their workforce is aware of their positive policies towards defence people issues. For example, an employer nominated for support to the Reserves must have an internally publicised and positive HR policy on Reserves
- Within the context of Reserves the employer must have demonstrated support to the mobilisations or have a framework in place. They must demonstrate support to training by providing at least 5 days additional unpaid / paid leave (wherever possible not to Reservists employees financial disadvantage)
- The employer must not have been the subject of any negative PR or media activity

Gold Award

- Must have signed the Armed Forces Covenant
- Employers must have an existing relationship with their National Account Manager Armed Forces Covenant /REED Specialist Recruitment (appropriate defence representative)
- The employer must have already stated their intent to be supportive by using the ERS website to register at the Bronze level
- The employer must proactively demonstrate their forces-friendly credentials as part of their recruiting and selection processes. Where possible, they should be engaged with Career Transition Partnership (CTP) in the recruitment of service leavers
- Employers must employ at least one individual from the armed forces community category that the nomination emphasises. For example, an employer nominated for support to the Reserves must employ at least one Reservist
- The employer must actively ensure that their workforce is aware of their positive policies towards defence people issues. For example, an employer nominated for support to the Reserves must have an internally publicised and positive HR policy on Reserves
- The employer must be an exemplar within their market sector, advocating support to Defence People issues to partner organisations, suppliers and customers with tangible positive results
- Within the context of Reserves the employer must have demonstrated support to mobilisations or have a framework in place. They must provide at least 10 days' additional leave for training, fully paid, to the Reservist employee
- The employer must not have been the subject of any negative PR or media activity