Hi Nathan,

Sorry this has taken a while.

So, we conducted an immigration enforcement visit to Daisy Take away 44 Steely Lane , Chorley, Lancashire, PR6 ORD on 21/10/2022 after receiving intelligence that the “employer hiring illegal workers located at business address 44 Steely Lane PR6ORN t01257262242. The employer is also paying the illegal workers below minimum wage cash in hand and evade paying taxes”.

Upon entering the premises under Section 179 licensing Act 2003, officers witnessed 2 males behind the counter wearing aprons. Whilst explaining to the person in charge why we were there, the second male went to the back. Officers entered the back of the kitchen and found the male in the garden with his apron off and holding it in his hands. This male was later found to be REDACTED after he was unable to tell us his name and correct date of birth. This male was arrested under Paragraph 17(1) Schedule 2 Immigration Act 1971 as a Section 10 Overstayer. He was later taken to a police station whilst we waited for him to be taken to a detention centre. When officers went to the back of the kitchen another male was also encountered, however he was not arrested due to having an outstanding application with the Home Office. He was however, working in breach of his immigration bail conditions. He was interviewed and walked off of the premises. This case has been referred to the illegal working civil penalty team, no outcome as of yet.

There is also a record from June 2013 where another male was arrested as an Overstayer during a previous enforcement visit to the premises.

Please let me know if you need any more information.

Regards
