Dear Amy,
I would be very happy to see the clock face you have in your courtyard back where it belongs. I am sure St Laurence's Church is the proper place for 'it's final resting place'. There more people will be able to see it.

Thank you for your hard work in trying to facilitate the move. It is much appreciated.

Hello,

Thank you so much for getting in contact with us regarding the clock face. We're so pleased to hear from you.

I wonder whether you would be happy to visit Astley Hall to discuss the proposal for the clock face to go back to St Laurence's Church further.

Please let me know if this is convenient for you, I am usually in the office Wednesday – Friday.

Best wishes

Amy

Hello,

I donated the clock face to the Hall. Came from the garden of my then house on Park Road.

George Bottle wrote about it in the Guardian in 1983.

Hope this is of use. You will find more in " In the footsteps of Wilson
