Please state the ground(s) for review (please read guidance note 2)

This application for the review of a premises licence is being submitted by the Licensing Authority, acting as a responsible authority.

The licensing objective of The Prevention of Crime and Disorder is being undermined at the premises in that a person who was not permitted to work in the United Kingdom by reason of his immigration status was found to be working on the premises. There was another person found to be working who was working in breach of his immigration bail conditions.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application

On 21/10/22, Immigration Enforcement conducted a visit to the premises known as Daisy Tandoori, 44 Steeley Lane, Chorley, PR6 0RD. This was following receiving intelligence that the “employer was hiring illegal workers” and that “the employer is also paying the illegal workers below minimum wage cash in hand and evade paying taxes”.

On entering the premises, immigration officers witnessed two males behind the counter wearing aprons. Whilst officers were explaining to the manager why they were there, the second male went into the back. Officers followed this person into the back of the kitchen and found the male in the garden with his apron off and holding it in his hands. The male was unable to tell the officers his name and correct date of birth but was later identified. This male was identified as a Section 10 Overstayer, was arrested and taken to a detention centre.

In addition to this individual, officers found another person at the premises. This person had an outstanding application with the Home Office however, as he was working at the premises, was in breach of his immigration bail conditions. This individual was interviewed and then walked off the premises.

Immigration Enforcement have records of a previous enforcement visit in 2013 whereby another Overstayer was arrested. An email from ICE is appended at Appendix 1.

In addition to immigration offences, the premises licence holder was issued with a simple caution by Licensing Officers on 03/02/20 for an offence contrary to Section 136 of the Licensing Act 2003, Carrying on unauthorised licensable activity, in that he held himself out as willing to supply hot food or drink from the premises others than under an authorisation as the premises licence had been suspended for failing to make payment of the premises licence annual fee. A copy of this caution is appended at Appendix 2.

Although over a relatively long period of time, this shows a number of instances where the premises has been associated with crime and disorder, with the premises licence holder being the person in the centre of each instance.

The Section 182 Guidance states:

11.27 There is certain criminal activity that may arise in connection with licensed premises which should be treated particularly seriously. These are the use of the licensed premises:

- for the sale and distribution of drugs controlled under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 and the laundering of the proceeds of drugs crime;
- for the sale and distribution of illegal firearms;
- for the evasion of copyright in respect of pirated or unlicensed films and music, which does considerable damage to the industries affected;
- for the illegal purchase and consumption of alcohol by minors which impacts on the health, educational attainment, employment prospects and propensity for crime of young people;
- for prostitution or the sale of unlawful pornography;
- by organised groups of paedophiles to groom children;
- as the base for the organisation of criminal activity, particularly by gangs;
- for the organisation of racist activity or the promotion of racist attacks;
- for employing a person who is disqualified from that work by reason of their immigration status in the UK;

- for unlawful gambling; and
- for the sale or storage of smuggled tobacco and alcohol.

11.28 It is envisaged that licensing authorities, the police, the Home Office (Immigration Enforcement) and other law enforcement agencies, which are responsible authorities, will use the review procedures effectively to deter such activities and crime. Where reviews arise and the licensing authority determines that the crime prevention objective is being undermined through the premises being used to further crimes, it is expected that revocation of the licence – even in the first instance – should be seriously considered.

Relevant Legislation:

CAUTION! This email originated from outside of the organisation. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognise the sender and know the content is safe.

Hi Nathan,

Sorry this has taken a while.

So, we conducted an immigration enforcement visit to Daisy Take away 44 Steely Lane , Chorley, Lancashire, PR6 ORD on 21/10/2022 after receiving intelligence that the “employer hiring illegal workers located at business address 44 Steely Lane PR6ORN t01257262242. The employer is also paying the illegal workers below minimum wage cash in hand and evade paying taxes”.

Upon entering the premises under Section 179 licensing Act 2003, officers witnessed 2 males behind the counter wearing aprons. Whilst explaining to the person in charge why we were there, the second male went to the back. Officers entered the back of the kitchen and found the male in the garden with his apron off and holding it in his hands. This male was later found to be REDACTED after he was unable to tell us his name and correct date of birth. This male was arrested under Paragraph 17(1) Schedule 2 Immigration Act 1971 as a Section 10 Overstayer. He was later taken to a police station whilst we waited for him to be taken to a detention centre. When officers went to the back of the kitchen another male was also encountered, however he was not arrested due to having an outstanding application with the Home Office. He was however, working in breach of his immigration bail conditions. He was interviewed and walked off of the premises. This case has been referred to the illegal working civil penalty team, no outcome as of yet.

There is also a record from June 2013 where another male was arrested as an Overstayer during a previous enforcement visit to the premises.

Please let me know if you need any more information.
