Item 3a, Rachel Austen confirmed that she has now spoken to Donna at VCFS. Also Hutton Grammar School have accepted the awareness training which will be delivered by Blast in Summer 2018.

The Chair said she thought it would be useful to understand what training has been undertaken for Chorley/South Ribble/West Lancs and look at what the gaps are.

Sharon Phillips said she can provide information of what the Children's Society have done. Sharon

Laura advised that they can look at what training schools have done, and possibly link in with the police and crime commission. Rachel/Laura

At item 5, Karl Worsley, DWP advised that the go live dates for Chorley and South Ribble have now changed to July 2018.

3 SAFEGUARDING

a LSCB

Laura gave an overview, she explained that there are currently two cases both within South Ribble, these are ongoing and include criminal investigations which means they could be delayed. Further updates will be provided.

Laura advised that a conference is taking place on 14th March 'SAR/SCR Case Review Conference Day' which will include key themes from learning further information will be shared.

The Risk Sensible Practice was launched in the summer briefings took place in October with approximately 600 people attending. The feedback received has been that there were not enough training dates, so additional dates have now been added so they will now take place each month.

Laura advised that the new Training Co-ordinator is Sarah Hargreaves, there is a backlog and she will be working on 2018/19 dates. Her contact email address is Sarah.hargreaves@lancashire.gov.uk

b Training

Louise explained that a further detailed discussion is needed with Sarah Hargreaves.

Louise asked if members of the CPB are accessing LSCB training, members agreed that this is being accessed in their individual agencies.

4 COUNTER TERRORISM

Rachel Austen advised that it's been 12 months since the training was delivered, Chorley and South Ribble have had the WRAP training.

Rachel is looking at counter terrorism training in February 2018, Rachel will speak to the Police to look at what has already been delivered in schools.

Rachel said that she will forward a copy of the Concern Form used for information. Rachel Members of the CPB agreed that counter terrorism training is high on everyone's agenda.

5 WELLBEING, PREVENTION AND EARLY HELP

Tim Grose was unable to attend the meeting, papers provided by Tim were circulate to members for their information.

Tim to be invited to the meeting in March.
